Speed Dating

This plug-in allow the user to contact multiple users by sending message or wink at one time. This is like sending mass message or wink to groups of users based on certain criteria. Set the maximum number of messages and maximum time allowed for the process. This is extremely useful to users, but may load the system considerably.

Speed Dating

Quickly contact many potential matches with a single email or wink. Use any of your saved searches, or the currently-loaded search results. Then specify the method of contact, and click Submit. There is a limit of 100 winks or messages per hour with this feature.

I'd like to contact these matches:

- All matches from 'My Matches'
- All users returned by my most recent profile search

Method of contact:

- Just send a wink
- Send this message:

Subject:

Body:

- Use overlap control (recommended). With this option, users who you've messaged or winked at within the past  days will be skipped.

Why choose Global Marketing Group?

Global Marketing Group – (DatingWebsiteDesigner.Com) is the ideal partner and vendor to help your business create an Internet presence that will enhance its equity, foster a one-to-one relationship with its clients, and lays the groundwork for more effective communication with its vendors, suppliers and investors. Global Marketing Group will be able to accomplish these goals with your business for several reasons:

Experience. The senior managers of Global Marketing Group have worked together as a team for over 15 years creating websites for fortune 500 companies and midsized businesses.

Strategy. Your business's new Internet presence will combine the inherent strength of your well-known services with the dynamic, information rich strength of the World Wide Web. Specifically, Global Marketing Group is recommending a strategy that will employ a unified backend that shares standardized site elements and resources with a front end design philosophy that will enable each service you provide to develop a unique web presence for its target audience and objectives. You will be able to develop economies of scale in architecture and maintenance while effectively extending each service with engaging, dynamic content that will be both personalized and interactive for visitors.

Process. Global Marketing Group employs a standard process with specific deadline and deliverables to insure that a project comes through on time and on budget. Besides clear benchmarks, the process emphasizes regular meetings, an online development area, scheduled phone conferences, and regular contact reports and documentation to confirm discussions and next steps.

As a web development and consulting firm, all of Global Marketing Group's employees are directly committed to building and maintaining Internet sites. The firm focuses on the entire sequence of events that take a website from a "blue sky" idea to a functioning online entity.

Global Marketing Group's core competencies include:

- Strategy
- Architecture & information design, navigation and content development
- User interface and graphic design
- Programming and technical assistance
- Marketing, promotion and site analysis
- Maintenance and support
